THIRTIETH YEAR NO. 31.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1907.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION BILL.

The Ohio Primary Election Reform League has drawn a bill which, in its main features at least, ought to receive the unanimous support of the legislature next winter. Quite possibly careful study of the measure and comparison of views may result in the discovery of some minor flaws, but it is right and honest in purpose, and much time and skill has gone into its preparation. It is just about right.

The bill provides, in brief, for the nomination of all Ohio candidates for office including candidates for federal office, by direct primary election. It throws about these primary elections, which are to be held by both parties at the regular polling places on the same days, the same safeguards which now surround the conduct of general elections. They are to be held under the auspices of the regular boards of elections, and the expense of them is to be borne as is the cost of regular elections.

One of the best features of the proposed law is its provision that no party designations shall appear on the ballots at purely local elections. Municipal elections ought to be divorced absolutely from politics, and leaving off the names of the candidates' respective parties would help mightily toward swelling the independent vote.

The bill, by providing for the popular nomination of all candidates for state office, does away with the state convention. This may seem to some a little radical, but why should it? The people of the state will be much more likely to nominate the ticket they want under the proposed system than under the present one, which gives a state machine a chance of controlling a comparatively small number of delegates. Watch the machine men fight for the state convention.

The section providing for the popular election of United States senators, in which the people of Ohio are much interested just now, seems to go as far as it can under the constitution, which requires the election of senators by the legislature. Under this bill the voters at the primary election at which candidates for the legislature are to be named, may express his preference for the senate on his ballot. Such instructions would be considered binding by the men elected to the legislature. They would not dare to ignore them.—Ohio State Journal.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The great Supreme Ruler of the Universe has in his infinite wisdom removed from among us one of our worthy and esteemed fellow laborers Charles Shannon, and

Whereas, the long and intimate relations held with him in the discharge of his duties in Cedar Cliff I. O. O. F. Lodge, makes it eminent-ly befitting that we record our appreciation of him. Therefore be it

Resolved, That the wisdom and ability which he has exercised in the aid of our Lodge, by his service and contributions, will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of his life from among us, leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of this Lodge, and will prove a serious loss to the community and to the public.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved family, and relatives of the deceased one, we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all, may be over ruled for good by Him, who doeth all things well, and our own loss may be his eternal gain.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Lodge, and a copy be given the bereaved family.

(G. W. Frantz,
Com. Jacob Siegler,
C. W. Crouse.)

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The All Wise God has seen fit, through his wisdom, to remove from our midst, a beloved and honored brother, and

Whereas, This Lodge realizes the loss of a noble, tried and true Knight, in the demise of Knight Charles Shannon, we also comfort ourselves in the thought that our loss is his gain.

Therefore be it Resolved, That Cedarville Lodge No. 549 K. of P. extends our sympathy to Brother Samuel Shannon and family, in their sad bereavement, also that a copy be forwarded to the stricken family, a copy placed on the archives of this Lodge and a copy published in our local papers.

STORIES OF THE STREET.

During the first of the week a traveling street merchant made a stop here selling all sorts of domestic goods at prices that were claimed to be the lowest. While the prices were always an important factor yet few people take into consideration the quality of the goods offered. It is known there was nothing offered but what could have been purchased at any of the local stores for the same money. But then people have no hesitancy in taking up with a stranger.

This same stranger had dictionaries for sale and of course was giving the greatest bargains in "Daniel Webster's" dictionaries ever offered of the people of Cedarville. A number of times he laid stress on the need of a "Daniel Webster" dictionary in every home and but few in the crowd knew the difference. Whether the street hawk was using Daniel's name to sell Noah's book, because he was the best known name of the day or whether the names were mixed, we do not know. Judging from the earnestness of the talk one would imagine that the fellow himself did not know which of the Webster's wrote the book.

A good story got out a few days ago that was certainly embarrassing to those concerned. A small boy, his mother and the minister were invited out one Saturday afternoon to a gathering of his young friends and before going was strongly cautioned to come home immediately after the party and change his "glad rags" for fear of getting them soiled. While the boy was away the mother concluded she would go to a ball game for a short time and to make sure that the son would do as he had been told a note was hastily written and pinned on the door. It read as follows: "Go in and take off your clothes, will be back at five o'clock." As such things usually fall to other people than the one intended, it proved so in this case. The minister was making calls that around while the note was pinned on the door. A neighbor saw him call and knew the lady of the house had gone. The neighbor also saw the minister as he stopped to read something pinned on the door but also did not know what it was. No sooner had he read the note than out the gate he went and was soon out of sight. The neighbor never knew what was on the note until she remarked to her friend that her minister had called that afternoon. "Then there were explanations due and one might imagine the feeling of the mother when it dawned on her how the note read.

The fact that people here this year have not been bothered with mosquitoes has caused considerable comment. All sorts of arguments have been used to show the absence of the pesky things. It has been several summers since people could sit on their porches and enjoy the evening. Then the drugstores have suffered by such a condition. There has been a very slow sale of insect powder, oils of a strong odor and the like. While Cedarville has been congratulating herself over the absence of mosquitoes some of the neighboring places are being swarmed with the trouble makers. The parks in Springfield are said to be alive with them. Clifton is said to have more than its share this year. It is not too late for Cedarville to get them yet so we had better not say too much over their absence.

CLARK COUNTY FAIR.

From present indications the fifty-fifth annual fair of the Clark County Agricultural Society, to be held at Springfield August 20, 21, 22 and 23, will eclipse any former exposition held by the society. The secretary has received a greater number of requests for privileges than any previous year and he has information that the exhibits will be larger in number than in the past.

The speed program arranged for this year will be a great drawing card. The two stake events for $500 purses, filled beyond expectations. For the 2:30 trotting stake there are 21 entries, and for the 2:25 pacing stake 44 entries.

The managers are exerting every effort to make the 1907 fair in Clark county the banner year and it appears that they will accomplish this end.

TAFT DAY AUG. 19

Secretary of War Will Speak to the Republicans at Columbus.

Thousands Will Bid Ohioan Goodspeed Before He Starts on History-Making Voyage to the Far East—Buckeye Club the Host.

For one day before the beginning of the long journey to the Philippines, Secretary of War William H. Taft will be Ohio's guest. The Ministry of the transcontinental trip prior to the Pacific voyage will provide for a one day's visit in Columbus. The secretary will arrive in the Ohio capital early in the morning of Aug. 19 and resume his journey to Seattle late the same night.

The Columbus visit will be made in response to an invitation extended by the Buckeye Republican club, one of the representative Republican organizations of Ohio, and far famed as a band of ardent party workers.

He Will Accept. Although Secretary Taft has not yet accepted the invitation, it has been understood that he will be able to stop over in Columbus upon the date selected and the Buckeye club has proceeded to arrange for the entertainment of the secretary and for his evening address.

The war secretary has come as the club's guest and in the evening of the 19th will address the membership and the Republicans of Columbus and Ohio. The meeting place has not yet been announced, but the Buckeye club, anticipating one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a political gathering, will provide a suitable assembly hall or theater. It is more than likely that Secretary Taft will deliver his speech from the stage of the Memorial hall. Thousands then will be enabled to hear him. It is probable that during the afternoon a reception will be tendered the war secretary.

Columbus a Mecca. Immediately upon the announcement of the invitation and before acceptance was received by Secretary Taft, word reached Columbus from the different corners of the state that the Republicans were making Columbus their Mecca on Aug. 19. It is expected that an immense crowd from over the state will journey to Columbus to wish Goodspeed to a native son before his history making voyage to the islands of the east. In the cities and counties where Taft clubs have been organized, plans already are under way to bring the organizations to Columbus in a body.

The proposition to invite Secretary Taft to Columbus was suggested by the entertainment committee of the Buckeye club and was unanimously adopted by a vote of the club.

Invite the Secretary. The following resolution was offered: "Resolved, That the entertainment committee be and is hereby authorized and instructed, to extend to Hon. William H. Taft, secretary of war, and a representative American citizen, disclaiming any factional significance, an invitation to deliver an address on national questions in Columbus, on the evening of Aug. 19, 1907, under the auspices of the Buckeye Republican club."

Chairman James A. Allen sent the following invitation to Secretary Taft: "Hon. William H. Taft, War Department, Washington, D. C.:

"Dear Sir:—Knowing that you will pass through Ohio on your way to the Pacific coast to sail to the Philippines, and hoping that it may be possible for you to stop in Columbus en route, the Buckeye Republican club desires to extend to you an invitation to address the people of Ohio, under the auspices of the club, upon some public question to be selected by yourself, on the evening of Monday, Aug. 19, 1907."

NEBRASKA TAFT LEAGUE. Nebraska leads in the formation of a State Taft League. Sister western states will within a short time fall in line and follow her example.

The Nebraska organization is in the hands of active Ohioans who migrated to the western state a number of years ago. At the head of the movement is Abel V. Shotwell, an Omaha attorney, and an alumnus of Ohio State university. Charles E. Smoyer is secretary. The headquarters are in the New York Life building in Omaha.

The league has adopted a constitution, which sets forth "that Hon. William H. Taft of Ohio is best fitted and qualified by reason of his resolute character, recognized ability and dauntless courage to carry out and further the good work of our president, to the purpose of encouraging and promoting by all honorable means the candidacy of Hon. William H. Taft for president of the United States."

INSTITUTE AT ROSEMOOR.

The Jamestown Mid-Summer Farmers' Institute and Picnic will be held in Rosemoor Park on Wednesday, August 14th. The speakers will be: Rev. H. S. Bigelow of Cincinnati and Hon. A. P. Sandles, of Ottawa, member of the Ohio State Board of Agriculture. There will be good music.

BOSWORTH PORTER, Secretary.

ELECTION AUGUST 12.

Yellow Springs will vote under the Beal law for Local option on August 12. A petition was circulated and the required number of names secured, though there are alleged charges of forgery and the payment of money to get the signatures. The petition was carried by a former saloon keeper, whose interests of course are at stake.

It is contended that business has not been what it should be since the saloons were put out two years ago. This argument comes from the wet side while the merchants claim a heavy gain.

The fight promises to be warm and interesting as the Law and Order League will turn every stone.

TAFT ENDORSED FOR PRESIDENT.

Columbus, Ohio, July 30.—The candidacy of William H. Taft, secretary of war, for the Republican nomination for president, was endorsed by the Republican state committee to day by a vote of 15 to 6. Although beaten by a decisive vote in all the preliminary contests, the adherents of Senator Foraker in the committee refused to accept the olive branch extended by the Taft supporters and when the resolution, as amended, was finally adopted no effort was made to make the action of the committee unanimous.

The endorsement of Secretary Taft's candidacy by the Republican state central committee was vigorously opposed by Senator Foraker who, upon the eve of the meeting openly voiced his dissent to the proposition. Seven of the 21 members of the committee, favored Foraker's policy on all votes except that taken upon the adoption of the resolution endorsing Taft. A. W. McDonald, of the 16th district, broke with the Foraker forces on the final ballot, which stood 15 to 6.

The Taft resolution was presented to the committee as soon as it convened this afternoon by Senator N. F. Overturn of the Eighth district who made a brief speech in support of it. C. B. McCoy of the Seventeenth district, who led the Foraker forces, raised the point of order that the committee was not following the order of business set forth in the call for the meeting issued by Chairman Brown.

A. I. Vorys, manager of Secretary Taft's campaign, made the following statement relative to the action of the committee:

"The action of the state committee while extremely gratifying is not surprising, for the committee has formally and officially declared what has been so apparent, namely, that the Republicans of Ohio are overwhelmingly for Secretary Taft for President Roosevelt's successor. The great importance of the committee's resolution lies in its removing all doubts in the minds of people of other states about Ohio being for Taft and in its demonstration that the Republicans of Ohio are united in their support of the Taft nomination."

When the United States Senator Foraker learned of the action of the Republican state committee this afternoon, he gave out the following statement:

"I cannot add anything to what I said in my open letter published this morning. I wrote that letter foreseeing the result and feeling that it was my duty to give notice beforehand that I would not be bound by any such unauthorized action. The committee had no more right to speak on that subject for the Republicans of Ohio than any other 21 Republicans of the state might have had, and the action of the committee will not affect my course in any way. The next state convention will have authority to spend and by the action of that convention it will be the duty of every good Republican to abide. In the meantime we shall have our own municipal elections and the benefit of occurring events in the light of all which we shall no doubt be able to act intelligently and satisfactorily."

Thrashers are busy this week and the yield is reported at about 25 bushels to the acre. This may vary in different localities. The quality of the wheat is first class and farmers in general are well pleased with the crop. Some of the early wheat was sold at eighty-five cents per bushel but the market has dropped to eighty-three cents. The wheat having a thrifty growth during the cool weather in May is responsible for the extraordinary amount of straw.

Monuments, Cut Stones and Statuary

Many things must be considered in the construction of a monument. Not only should the design be artistic, but the material substantial, and the workmanship—the best. We aim and succeed in combining all these at all times.
